ORIGINAL PRE-SENTENCE INVESTIGATIONS BY YEAR,
OFFENSE CATEGORY

Presentence investigation reports (PSI) are court ordered reports that provide the court with a detailed history of the offender to assist the court in determining an appropriate sentence. The Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts estimates that it take an officer nine (9) hours to complete each report. The division has three (3) officers that write the PSI reports.

ACTIVE CASELOAD BY MONTH, OFFENSE, CLASS

Active cases are cases that are provided regular supervision by the office. The primary purpose of supervision is to serve the court, protect the community, and provide the necessary services to reduce the probability of continued criminal behavior by an offender. This supervision takes place in the probation office, or the offender's home. Information from social service agencies that are working with the offenders, is also received. The seven (7) adult probation officers, in 2007 had an average of 100 cases. (151 in 2006).

The DUI/Victim Impact Panel was developed in 1992 in conjunction with the local Mother's Against Drunk Driving (MADD) Chapter. Members of the community, whose lives have been affected by a drunk driver, give a testimony to DUI offenders of how this has affected their life.

In 2007 477 people attended the DUI victim impact panels. (553 in 2006)

The Victim Impact Panel for domestic violence offenders was developed in 1999. Members of the community, who are survivors of domestic violence give a testimony as to how domestic violence has affected their life.

In 2007 136 people attended the domestic violence victim impact panels. (199 in 2006)

DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE UNIT

DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE

The Driving Under the Influence (DUI) program is a specialized unit of the McLean County Court Services/Adult Division. The primary purpose of the unit is to provide services to an identifiable group of offenders who display a serious abuse of drinking and driving. Although offenders are referred to this unit due to a criminal violation, the unit's major emphasis will be on deterring further abuse of alcohol and/or intoxicants by the offender for the protection of the community.

The DUI unit standards, as established by the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts (AOIC), permit one (1) Officer to supervise forty (40) offenders. The McLean County DUI unit currently consists of one (1) officer.

DIVERSION STATISTICS

During 2007, a total of 223 (2006- 227) preliminary conferences were conducted. A preliminary conference is in lieu of formal court action. The minor and his/her parents attend a meeting in the court services department to discuss the police report and determine if the minor is in need of services.

17 juveniles receiving preliminary conferences in 2007, recidivated and as a result had delinquency petitions filed.

COMMITMENT TO THE ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF JUVENILE JUSTICE

The court may order a youth committed to the juvenile department of corrections in two different ways: If the youth receives a full commitment, juvenile probation is no longer involved with the case. An evaluation could mean that once the youth returns to the community for a review hearing, he/she could receive a full commitment, or probation. The following numbers include early intervention, probation, regular probation and intensive probation.
